Color Outside the Lines is the theme for this year's MLYO Fall Gathering. While the theme may stir memories of a Middle School Gathering from a couple of years ago, rest assured that this is not the same program. Our text for the event is Matthew 18:3 - "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven." (NRSV) During the course of our time together, we'll explore what this meant for the disciples, as well as what it means for us as young adults.

We'll also "color outside the lines", as we check out a new time and place for the Gathering. We are excited about moving our event to the Red Lion Colonial in Helena, MT. We hope that by moving the Gathering into October we can take advantage of better weather for travel, and avoid some of the tournament scheduling conflicts that occur later on in November.
